Stanton, Benjamin 1/

March 1914

260

March 12th, 1914

Rev. B. B. Stauffer,

Toronto.

Dear Mr. Stauffer:

I am afraid that there is nothing special in my career that would be of particular interest or stimulus to others. My life has been comparatively uneventful, and I simply went through the ordinary routine of school and college.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.